Dear Sir;

I hope that you will not discard this letter with out giving it some thought.

I have liked your book Rush to Judgment for a fact that the Secret Service has Covered up things and I myself have been warned by the FBI in Portland Maine to keep my mouth shut on things that I know about another Crime that took place in the thirties.

I am enclosing evidence to show it may seem circumstancial.

Major Andrew J. Butler has tried to get his book out with my part in it.

We are stopped at every angle. I myself am not after publicity or fame or after the truth, it concerns the (Chilling Case) If you can help I will meet with you at first document that may [illegible] on you.

Yours Truly

P.S.

I have worked in Westbrook three years and can furnish recommendations on my honesty on what I have.

I am mailing one of Major Butlers writting to the Portland Press Herald this is not give my name it only relates man in Maine of said document I have at hand at all times) (over)

If you can not help with your case let me know so I can help.

Thank you again
